Ulster Scouts off to World Jamboree

The Ulster Scout contingent of the British party to the World Jamboree at Bad Ischl, Austria, were entertained to tea last night in the Midland Hotel, Belfast, and wished good luck by the Ulster Chief Commissioner, Sir Christopher Musgrave.

The party numbers 61, under the leadership of Mr. W. M. Brennan, who accompanied the boys, after the tea, on their crossing via Heysham. They marched to the steamer by York Street, Corporation Square, and Donegall Quay.

The Lord Mayor of Belfast, Councillor J. H. Norritt, was unable to be present at the tea because of a pre-arranged appointment in Dublin.

County Commissioner W. M. Brennan, F.R.C.S., leader of the Northern Ireland contingent to the Scout world jamboree, gives final instructions to the party before they left Belfast for Bad Ischl, Austria.
