1967

1967

28 March 1967 Second daughter Vanya Katharine Farlo Brennen born at 11 P.M. in Chiswick Maternity Hospital, London

Moved to Mews 1

July 20 → Summer vacation in Ireland

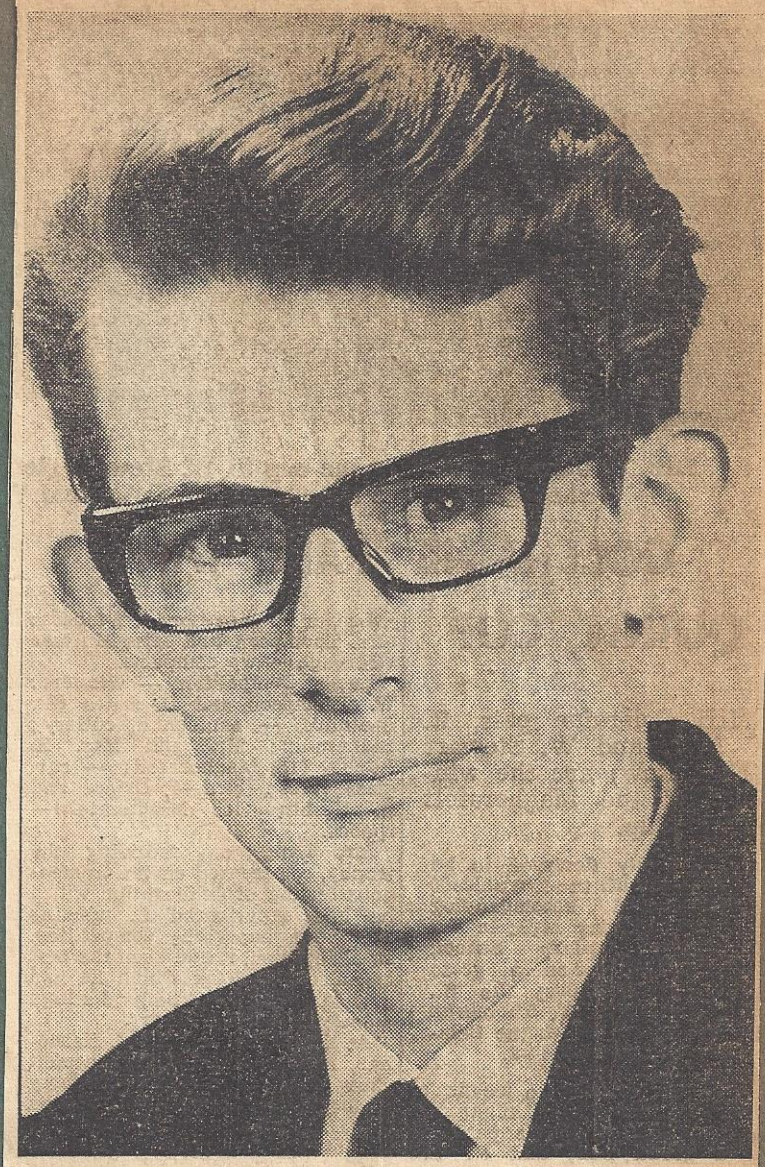
Oxford degree for Magherafelt man

Twenty-four-year-old Christopher Brennen, M.A., of Magherafelt, (above) receives his Ph.D. degree from Balliol College, Oxford, this Saturday.

A son of Mr. W. M. Brennen, F.R.C.S., and Mrs. Brennen, he has been appointed to Research Fellowship at the National Physical Laboratory, London.

A former pupil of Rainey Endowed School, Dr. Brennen was a Head Boy and played on the schools' rugby first fifteen. He was a keen member of the school's dramatic society and took the leading role of Ko-ko in "The Mikado," one of the outstanding operatic productions.

Dr. Brennen is married to a Dungannon girl, the former Miss Doreen Kerr, who is a graduate of Queen's University. They are at present living in London and have a baby daughter.



Ph.D. degree for young Magherafelt man

TWENTY - FOUR - YEAR - OLD Christopher Brennen, M.A. Magherafelt (pictured above), receives his Ph.D. degree from Balliol College, Oxford, this Saturday.

Son of Mr. W. M. Brennen, F.R.C.S., and Mrs. Brennen, he has been appointed to Research Fellowship at the National Physical Laboratory, London.

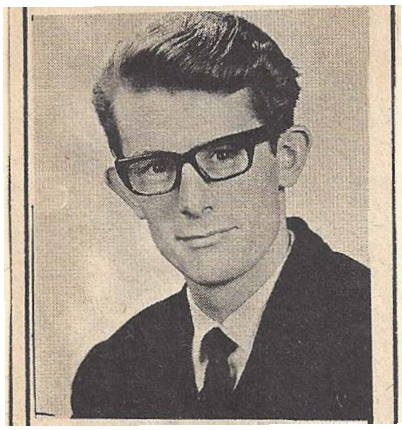
A former pupil of Rainey Endowed School, Dr. Brennen was a Head Boy and played on the school's 1st XV. He was prominently identified with the dramatic society and took the leading role of Ko-ko in "The Mikado," one of the school's outstanding operatic productions.

Dr. Brennen is married to a Dungannon girl, the former Miss Doreen Kerr, who is a graduate of Queen's University, and they have a baby daughter. They are at present living in London.

Research fellowship

Christopher Brennen, M.A., (24), of Magherafelt, who receives his Ph.D. degree from Balliol College, Oxford, tomorrow. Son of Mr. Wilfred M. Brennen, F.R.C.S., and Mrs. Brennen, Dr. Brennen now takes up a post in Research Fellowship at the National Physical Laboratory, London. A former pupil of Rainey Endowed School, he is married and has a baby daughter.

Oxford Graduate Honoured



Twenty-four-year-old Mr. Christopher Brennen, M.A., 1st Class Oxford Honours, Ph.D., pictured above recently received his degree at Balliol College, Oxford.

Son of Mr. W. M. Brennen, F.R.C.S. and Mrs. Brennen, he has been honoured by the award of a Research Fellowship in the National Physics Research Laboratory, London.

A former pupil of the Rainey School, Magherafelt, Dr. Brennen was Head Boy and played on the School 1st XV. He was prominently identified with the Dramatic Society.

Dr. Brennen is married to a Dungannon girl — the former Miss Doreen Kerr, who is a Graduate of Queen's University and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kerr, Park Road.

Dr. and Mrs. Brennen, who have a baby daughter, are at present living in London.

Dungannon lady for U.S.A.

Christopher Brennen, M.A., D.Phil., of Balliol College, Oxford, eldest son of Mr. Wilfred M. Brennen, F.R.C.S., and Mrs. Brennen, "Cranagh Dhu," Magherafelt, has been elected a Senior Research Fellow at the California Institute of Tech-nology, U.S.A. Dr. Brennen, who is a former pupil of the Rainey Endowed School, has also been awarded a Fulbright Travelling Scholarship and will be accompanied to the States by his wife, formerly Miss Doreen Kerr, Park Road, Dungannon, and their daughters.

Caltech Names 15 Promotions

Promotion of 15 faculty members of the California Institute of Technology by the board of trustees has been announced by Provost Robert F. Christy.

To research associate in chemistry, emeritus: Dr. Joseph B. Koepfli.

To the rank of professor: Drs. Barry C. Barish and Gordon P. Garmire, physics; Dr. James E. Gunn, astronomy; Drs. Wilfred D. Iwan and Paul C. Jennings, applied mechanics; anl Dr. Fredric Raichlen, civil engineering.

To research associate. Drs. Eva Fifkova, Peter H. Lowy, Marianne E. Olds, and Helen R. Revel, biology; and Dr. George A. Seielstad, radio astronomy.

To assistant professor: Dr. Michael Aschbacher, mathematics.

To senior research fellow: Dr. Christopher Brennen, engineering science; Dr. Barbara R. Hough, biology.

N.P.L. MUSICAL SOCIETY

and

N.P.L. AMATEUR DRAMATIC CIRCLE

Present

A GRAND CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT

on Monday, 18th December at 5.45 p.m.

in Glazebrook Hall Lecture Theatre

* * * * *

After the consumption of wine and cheese (at a price)

Mr. Richard Gandy and Mr. Noel Noble

will join voices in a selection of Victorian duets

(with Mr. Gordon Cumming at the piano)

* * * *

Madame Joan Scarrott and her Choir

will perform a brand-new anthem specially composed for the occasion by Madame Scarrott

* * * *

Miss Joan Dauris and Company will present their latest West End success

* * * *

The Reverend Chris Brennen will address from the pulpit

* * *

with other items for your entertainment and pleasure

* *

Forthcoming Events

Thursday, 4th January, 1968 at 1.0 p.m.
Keith Ellis and Arthur Gardner in a programme of folk songs

Thursday, 22nd February, 1968 at 1.0 p.m.
Julian Edwards (oboe), with strings.